

COEDRATH HOUSE

Coedrath was built in the late 1850s on the site of an earlier house. It served as the harbour manager's house during the second half of the 19th century. It was converted into a small hotel in 1985, but was closed by 1995. It is now a private house.