

ROSE COTTAGE

This small cottage is a listed building. It was built in the early 19th century and was originally the only dwelling on what became High Street, as Saundersfoot grew. It is therefore a rare survival of the early village.