

THE COTTAGE

This house was built by C.H.R. Vickerman as a wedding present to his son in 1926. It was built by the architect Kenneth Dalglish of London in the Arts and Craft style. It is notable for its picturesque character and thatched roof.